

Terms of Service

Effective Date: December 17, 2018

These Terms of Service, including any policies, rules and other documents that are expressly incorporated herein by reference (collectively, the “Terms”), sets forth a legally binding agreement between you and AHNP, LLC d/b/a AHNP Precision Health (“Apollo Health”, “Apollo”, “AHNP Precision Health”, “AHNP”, “we” or “us”). These Terms govern your access to and use of any Apollo websites, software, products and services that link to these Terms, including the website located at www.apollohealthco.com or www.ahnphhealth.com (the “Site”), and any content, functionality and services offered on or through the Site (collectively, the “Services”), whether as a guest or a registered user. Please read these Terms carefully before accessing or using the Site or any Services.

These Terms contain a binding arbitration clause (Section 22) and class action waiver (Section 23) that waive your right to a court hearing and jury trial. Please read them carefully.

1. Acceptance of Terms

By using any of the Services (whether or not you have an Apollo account or Subscription (as defined below) to any particular Services), or by clicking to accept or agree to these Terms when this option is made available to you, you accept and agree to be bound by these Terms and to abide by all applicable laws with regard to your use of the Services. Except as specified herein, these Terms apply to any use of the Services, including, without limitation, when you: (i) upload a digital version of your Medical Information (as defined in our Privacy Statement) and interact with it on or through the Site; or (ii) create and use a free Apollo account without providing your test data or Medical Information. In order to use the Services, you must first agree to these Terms. If you do not agree to be bound by these Terms and to abide by all applicable laws, you may not use any of the Services.

In addition to these Terms, your use of certain Services may require you to accept additional terms and conditions applicable to such Services, including any additional terms and conditions applicable to Subscriptions (collectively, “Additional Terms”). When using particular Services, you shall be subject to any rules or policies applicable to such Services that may be posted or made available to you through the Services from time to time (“AHNP Policies”). The Additional Terms and AHNP Policies are incorporated and made a part of these Terms by this reference.

2. Changes to Terms

Apollo reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to change, modify, update or supplement these Terms or any Additional Terms that apply to a Service, at any time, including to reflect changes to the law or changes to our Services. When these changes are made, Apollo will make a new copy of these Terms available on the Site and any Additional Terms will be made available to you from within, or through, the affected Services. All changes are effective immediately when we post them or make them available to you, and apply to all access to and use of the Services thereafter. You acknowledge and agree that if you use the Services after the date on which these Terms have changed, Apollo will treat your use as acceptance of the updated Terms. It is your responsibility to check these Terms periodically for changes. Your continued use of the Services following the posting of any changes will mean that you accept and agree to the changes. If any changes are unacceptable to you, you may stop using the Services and, if applicable, cancel your Subscription.

3. Privacy Statement

When you access the Site or use the Services, you provide us with different types of information. Please read our Privacy Statement, available at <https://apollo.ahnphhealth.com/privacy> (the “Privacy Statement”), which explains how we collect, use and share information through the Site and Services, as well as your choices regarding these activities. The Privacy Statement applies to use of the Site and Services, and its terms and conditions are incorporated and made a part of these Terms by this reference. To view the Privacy Statement, <https://apollo.ahnphhealth.com/privacy>.

4. Eligibility to Use the Services

The Services are intended for adults in the countries where they are being offered. You may not use the Services if you are (i) not of legal age to form a binding contract with Apollo or (ii) barred from receiving or using the Services under the laws of the jurisdiction in which you are resident or from which you use the Services. By using the Services, you represent that you satisfy the requirements set forth herein.

You must be at least 18 years of age to purchase or use any Services. To protect your privacy when you share your Medical Information with us, each adult who submits a blood sample for testing must create their own account. In addition, depending on the country where the person providing the blood sample is located, such person may also be required to explicitly consent to the processing of sensitive personal information before they activate their account or use any of the Services.

A parent or legal guardian may provide us personal information, and send us the blood samples of a minor child for processing using an account for that child that is directly managed by the parent or legal guardian. By activating a test for, or submitting any Personal Information about, a minor, you represent that you are the minor’s parent or legal guardian. You also agree that you have discussed the test or applicable Services with the minor and the minor has agreed to the collection and processing of their blood labs.

While the Services are intended for adults, if you are between the ages of 13 and 18, you may use the Services with your parent’s or guardian’s permission. Children under the age of 13 are not permitted to use any Services. We do not knowingly seek or collect any personal information from children under the age of 13. If Apollo becomes aware that we have unknowingly collected any personal data directly from a child under the age of 13, we will take commercially reasonable efforts to delete such data from our system.

5. Account Creation

You may need to create an Apollo account in order to access and use the Services. To protect your Apollo account, please keep your username and password strictly confidential. You are solely responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your username, password and other account information, and are fully responsible for all activities performed through use under your Apollo account. If required, you will create a username and password for your Apollo account. You must provide accurate, complete and current registration information when you register and create an Apollo account. In consideration of your use of the Services, you agree to: (i) provide true, accurate, current, and complete registration information about yourself as prompted by the Service; and (ii) maintain and promptly update the registration information to keep it true, accurate, current and complete. If you provide any registration information that is untrue, inaccurate, not current or incomplete, Apollo has the right to limit, suspend or terminate your account and your access to the Services (or any portion thereof). You agree to immediately notify Apollo of any unauthorized use of your Apollo account and ensure that you exit from your account at the end of each session. Apollo will not be liable for any damages arising from your failure to comply with this Section.

6. Subscriptions

You may purchase access to certain Services and Apollo Content on a subscription basis (“Subscriptions”). Subscriptions automatically renew until cancelled in the subscription settings section of your Apollo account page. We will notify you if the price of a Subscription increases and, if required, seek your consent to continue. You will be charged no more than twenty-four (24) hours prior to the start of the latest Subscription period. If we cannot charge your payment method for any reason (such as expiration or insufficient funds), and you have not cancelled the Subscription, you remain responsible for any uncollected amounts, and we will attempt to charge the payment method as you may update your payment method information. This may result in a change to the start of your next Subscription period and may change the date on which you are billed for each period. Apollo reserves the right to cancel your Subscription if we are unable to successfully charge your payment method to renew your Subscription. When your Subscription ends, you will lose access to the Services and Apollo Content that require a Subscription.

Prices and Refunds

You will be charged the rate stated at the time of purchase (plus applicable taxes) at the beginning of each billing period of your Subscription via the payment method that you have provided to Apollo. You are solely responsible for ensuring that your billing and payment information is correct to prevent your Subscription from being cancelled.

Prices and terms for Subscriptions may change at any time. The prices and terms in effect as of the Subscription Start Date or the date your Subscription last renewed (as applicable) shall remain in effect for the duration of the applicable Initial Subscription Period or Renewal Subscription Period (as the case may be), provided that new or modified prices and terms may apply to renewals or new Subscriptions. Apollo will provide you with reasonable notice of any updates or changes in prices or terms before they become effective. If you do not want to renew your Subscription under such new or modified prices or terms, you may cancel your Subscription as described herein.

All refunds of any pre-paid Subscription fees that you may be entitled to receive pursuant to these Terms will be credited to the then current payment method associated with your Apollo account. Refunds are not based on account usage. If you terminate your Subscription and Apollo account for Apollo’s material breach of these Terms after providing Apollo with a forty-five (45) day cure period during which time Apollo fails or is otherwise unable to cure such material breach, Apollo will refund to you any pre-paid Subscription fees on a pro-rated basis.

Initial Subscription Period

Once your initial Subscription payment is processed, and effective as of that date (the “Subscription Start Date”), your Subscription shall immediately commence and you can access the applicable Services and Apollo Content. Your Subscription shall commence on your Subscription Start Date and continue to be effective for an initial period of twelve (12) months following your Subscription Start Date (the “Initial Subscription Period”). You may cancel your Subscription during the first thirty (30) days of your Initial Subscription Period for a full refund. If you cancel your Subscription after the first thirty (30) days of your Initial Subscription Period, you will not receive a refund of any kind or for any amount, but you shall continue to retain access to the applicable Services and Apollo Content for the remainder of your Initial Subscription Period, after which your Subscription will be cancelled.

Automatic Renewal of Subscription

If you do not cancel your Subscription within your Initial Subscription Period, then your Subscription shall renew automatically for additional, successive one (1) month periods (each, a “Renewal Subscription Period”), and your Subscription shall continue on a month-to-month basis as described herein until cancelled in accordance with these Terms. During any Renewal Subscription Period, you may cancel your Subscription at any time prior to the five (5) day period before the next Subscription renewal date, provided that you shall not be entitled to nor receive a refund of any kind or for any amount. If you cancel your Subscription at any time during a Renewal Subscription Period, you shall continue to retain access to the applicable Services and Apollo Content for the remainder of the then-current Renewal Subscription Period. If you cancel your Subscription at any time within the five (5) day period before the next Subscription renewal date, your Subscription shall renew automatically for one (1) additional Renewal Subscription Period, after which your Subscription will be cancelled.

7. Description of the Services

The Services include access to the Site and proprietary services, including the collection and analysis of your blood labs. Unless explicitly stated otherwise, each new feature that augments or enhances the current Service shall be subject to these Terms. You acknowledge and agree that the Services are provided “AS-IS” and are based on the current state of the medical research and technology in use by AHNP at the time of purchasing the Services. You acknowledge and agree that the form and nature of the Services which Apollo provides may change from time to time without prior notice to you, and that Apollo may stop (permanently or temporarily) providing certain Services (or any features within the Services) to you or to users generally at Apollo’s sole discretion, without prior notice to you. You may stop using the Services at any time. You do not need to specifically inform Apollo when you stop using the Services unless you are requesting closure of your account. Apollo assumes no responsibility for the use of Services in any manner not contemplated by these Terms, or any use of the Services in violation of these Terms.

In order to use the Services, you must obtain Internet access, either directly or through devices that access web-based content, and pay any service fees associated with such access. You are solely responsible for paying such service fees and obtaining all equipment necessary to make such Internet connection, including a computer and modem or other access device. You are solely responsible for providing such equipment.

8. Risks and Considerations Regarding the Services

We encourage you to speak with your medical doctor or other health care professional prior to collecting your sample for testing so you can make an informed decision about whether testing is right for you. If you feel anxious about getting medical results, you should speak with your medical doctor prior to collecting your blood labs for testing. A medical doctor can help you understand your results and options. You should not assume that any information we may be able to provide to you, whether now or in the future, will be welcome or positive. You should also understand that you may need to obtain additional services from Apollo or your medical doctor in order for you to assess the meaning of any information we provide to you.

You should not change your health behavior solely on the basis of information you receive from Apollo or through use of the Services. You should discuss your Medical Information with your medical doctor before you act upon any information obtained or resulting from the Services. There may be unknown factors or lifestyle choices that are more important predictors. If you have any questions or concerns about the information you obtain through use of the Services, you should contact and speak with your medical doctor.

While we measure many aspects of your test data and other Medical Information, only a small percentage of them are known to be related to human traits or health conditions. The research community is rapidly learning more about Alzheimer's, and an important mission of Apollo is to conduct and contribute to this research. In addition, many ethnic groups are not included in medical studies. Because interpretations provided through the Services rely on these published studies, some interpretations may not apply to you. Future scientific research may change the interpretation of your test data and Medical Information. In the future, the scientific community may show previous research to be incomplete or inaccurate.

You should be very careful about sharing your Medical Information with any third party. Some jurisdictions have laws that protect individuals with regard to their Medical Information. You may want to consult a lawyer to understand the extent of legal protection of your Medical Information before you share it with others. In addition, Medical Information that you choose to share with your medical doctor or other health care provider may become part of your medical record and accessible to other health care providers and/or insurance companies in the future. Medical Information that you share with family, friends or employers may be used against your interests. Even if you share Medical Information that has no or limited meaning today, that information could have greater meaning in the future as new discoveries are made.

The Medical Information provided by Apollo is for research, informational and educational use only. Many of the medical discoveries that we report have not been clinically validated, and the technology we currently use has not been widely used for clinical testing. The Services are not intended to be used for any diagnostic purpose and are not a substitute for professional medical advice. You should always seek the advice of your medical doctor if you have any questions or concerns regarding diagnosis, cure, treatment, mitigation or prevention of any disease, medical condition or impairment or the status of your health.

Apollo does not endorse, warrant or guarantee the effectiveness of any specific course of action, resources, tests, physician or other health care providers, drugs, nutraceuticals, biologics, medical devices or other products, procedures, opinions, or other information that may be mentioned on the Site or otherwise made available to you by or through the Services. If we provide you with any potentially actionable information based on the information you provide to us, scientific literature, research or otherwise, such potentially actionable information is intended solely for informational purposes and for discussion with your medical doctor. Only a medical doctor or other health care provider with relevant expertise can assess your current state of health or disease, taking into account many factors, including in some cases your medical history as well as your current symptoms, if any. Reliance on any information provided by Apollo or through the Services is solely at your own risk.

Please note that Apollo is not universally licensed by all state, federal or international authorities for medical testing conducted for health and disease-related purposes. There are certain jurisdictions in which we do not offer our Services because we do not have required licenses.

- You will not use the Services in any manner that could damage, disable, overburden, or impair the Services or interfere with any other party's use and enjoyment of the Services;

You agree to comply with all laws and regulations regarding online conduct and acceptable content. You agree that you will comply with all applicable laws regarding the transmission of technical data exported from the United States or the country from which you access the Services.

21. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

These Terms and your use of the Services shall be governed by and construed for both substantive and procedural purposes in accordance with the laws of the State of California, U.S.A., without giving effect to any principles of any choice or conflict of law provision that would cause the laws of any jurisdiction other than those of the State of California to apply. The Services are intended to comply with U.S. state and federal laws and regulations. If you are a non-U.S.-based user, be advised that other countries may have laws, regulatory requirements that are different from those in the U.S.

22. Timing of Claims

You agree that regardless of any statute or law to the contrary, any claim or cause of action arising out of or related to use of the Services or these Terms must be filed within one (1) year after such claim or cause of action arose or be forever barred.

23. Arbitration

Any dispute relating in any way to these Terms or the Services shall be submitted to confidential arbitration in San Francisco, California, except that, to the extent you have in any manner violated or threatened to violate our intellectual property rights, we may seek injunctive or other appropriate relief in any state or federal court, including in San Francisco, California, and you consent to jurisdiction and venue in such courts in San Francisco, California. Arbitration under these Terms shall be conducted under the rules then prevailing of the American Arbitration Association in accordance with its Commercial Arbitration Rules and before a single arbitrator. The selected arbitrator must have expertise in the subject matter of the dispute. The expenses of the arbitration charged by the arbitrator shall be borne by the prevailing party or otherwise as appropriately allocated between the parties to the arbitration by the arbitrator in his or her discretion. However, in every other regard, each party shall pay for and bear its own costs and legal fees, costs, and expenses. The arbitration shall be completed within 120 days of either giving notice or filing a demand to arbitrate with the American Arbitration Association (whichever shall first occur). The arbitrator's award shall be binding and may be entered as a judgment in any court of competent jurisdiction. The testimony, evidence, ruling, and all documentation regarding any arbitration shall be considered confidential information. Neither party may use, disclose, or divulge any such information unless otherwise required by law.

24. Class Action Waiver

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, no arbitration under these Terms shall be joined to an arbitration involving any other party subject to these Terms, whether through class arbitration proceedings or otherwise. You agree to an arbitration on an individual basis. In any dispute, NEITHER YOU NOR WE WILL BE ENTITLED TO JOIN OR CONSOLIDATE CLAIMS BY OR AGAINST OTHER USERS IN COURT OR IN ARBITRATION OR OTHERWISE PARTICIPATE IN ANY CLAIM AS A CLASS REPRESENTATIVE, CLASS MEMBER, OR IN A PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL CAPACITY. The arbitral tribunal may not consolidate more than one (1) person's claims, and may not otherwise preside over any form of a representative or class proceeding. The arbitral tribunal has no power to consider the enforceability of this class arbitration waiver and any challenge to the class arbitration waiver may only be raised in a court of competent jurisdiction.

If Apollo or its business is acquired or transferred to another entity (in whole or part and including in connection with bankruptcy or similar proceedings), Apollo has the right to share your Personal Information and User Content with that entity. These Terms will continue to apply to the Services until you receive notification of changes to the Terms or Services. There shall be no third-party beneficiaries to these Terms. Any provision of these Terms that contemplates performance or observance subsequent to any expiration or termination of these Terms, or which is otherwise necessary to interpret the respective rights and obligations of the Parties hereunder, shall survive any expiration or termination of these Terms and continue in full force and effect. In the event any provision of these Terms is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable under law, such provision shall be amended and interpreted to accomplish the objectives of such provision to the greatest extent possible, and the remaining provisions of these Terms shall continue in full force and effect. No delay or omission by Apollo to exercise any right occurring upon any non-compliance or default by you with respect to these Terms shall impair any such right or be construed to be a waiver thereof.
